THE CAMARGO FOUNDATION

Founded by American artist and philanthropist Jerome Hill (1905-1972), the Camargo Foundation fosters creativity, research, and experimentation through its international residency program for artists, scholars, and thinkers.

Located in Cassis, France, on the edge of the Mediterranean Sea, the Foundation offers time and space in a contemplative and supportive environment, giving residents the freedom to think, create, and connect.

ABOUT THE PROGRAM

With this 2023-2024 edition, the Camargo Foundation's historic residency program, known in recent years as the «core program» returns to its original name, the Camargo Fellowship.

Based on feedback from the residents, we are making several adjustments to the Camargo Fellowship program, as to better meet the needs of the artists, researchers and thinkers at Camargo. We have adapted the length of the residencies so that they span a period of 10 weeks. We have increased the resources provided to the residents. Finally, we have given the Fellowship program pride of place within Camargo's activities.

These changes reflect the Foundation's commitment to further support groundbreaking, experimental and interdisciplinary exchanges. From now on, 14 fellows will be selected annually for a Camargo Fellowship residency. Unlike the other programs offered by the Camargo Foundation, the Camargo Fellowship is unique in that it brings together a cohort of Fellows from different fields, practices, and disciplines for a certain period of time, to focus on the development and research of their projects.

ABOUT THE PROGRAM

© SARA FARID

The Camargo Fellowship not only provides time and space for the residents, but also initiates exchanges within the group and develops a collective spirit, which is one of the program's distinctive features. The interactions developed among the program's fellows are a vital element of this program.

Since 1971, the Camargo Foundation has awarded residencies to nearly 1500 individuals as part of its mission to support advanced research, experimentation, and interdisciplinary approaches in the Arts and Humanities. Since its creation, the program has gathered an esteemed panel of scholars and arts professionals annually, to select fellowships from a large pool of applicants from around the world.

The selected applicants are awarded residencies in a stunning, contemplative environment where they have the space, time, and freedom to think, create, and connect. With each cohort of Fellows, the Foundation strives to foster connections between research and creation.

ELIGIBILITY

GENERAL INFORMATION

The Camargo Foundation is committed to supporting inclusiveness and a diversity of contemporary reflections and practices, welcoming applicants from around the globe. The Camargo Fellowship offers research-based residencies to applicants from various fields and disciplines. Three main categories are available, as well as several subcategories for artists' applications.

SCHOLARS

Scholars should be connected to the Arts and Humanities working on French and Francophone cultures, or cross-cultural studies that engage the cultures and influences of the Mediterranean region. To be eligible for a fellowship in the "Scholars" category, applicants are expected either to hold a PhD and a record of post-doctoral scholarship, or to be PhD candidates completing the final stages of research for, or writing of, their dissertation.

THINKERS

Thinkers include accomplished professionals and practitioners in cultural and creative fields (such as curators, journalists, critics, urban planners, independent scholars, etc.) who are professionally engaged in critical thought. We are interested in work attuned to the theoretical arena, the arts, and society.

ARTISTS

Artists should keep in mind that the Camargo Fellowship is a research-based residency. Applicants should have had a practice for, at a minimum, the previous 5 years. They should be the primary creators of new work or a new project. They should be able to demonstrate a track record of publications, public performances and exhibitions, credits, awards, and/or grants.

We are interested in artists who have a fully developed, mature artistic voice. Applicants may include artists who are engaged in critical thought and research-oriented projects. When applying, artists will have to identify among the following subcategories: Visual Artists / Choreographers, Theater Directors, and Performance Artists / Writers and Playwrights / Film, Video and Digital Artists / Composers and Sound Artists / Multidisciplinary Artists.

FORMER FELLOWS

When equally ranked, first-time applicants are normally given preference over previous Camargo Fellows. Former Fellows may not apply until three years after their previous fellowship.

PURPOSE OF THE RESIDENCY

RESEARCH, EXPERIMENT & CREATE

Applicants must submit a proposal for work they would like to accomplish during their residencies. Proposals may include specific projects to develop or complete (e.g. a book, film, composition, artwork, etc.) or research into a particular topic or issue, in advance of writing or creating a work of art. Research projects should be pertinent to the Fellow's field. The Camargo Core Program welcomes both open-ended exploration, or more focused works.

EXCHANGE & NETWORK

During the residency, discussions are held regularly so that Fellows have the opportunity to present their work to the group. These project discussions serve as an opportunity for interdisciplinary exchange. All Fellows are required to be present at these discussions.

The Camargo Foundation's staff can provide formal and informal links to the region, facilitate meetings with professionals whose areas of expertise are relevant to Fellows' work, and communicate opportunities to attend events or invite outside professionals to project discussions.

© CHARLOTTE ARTHAUD

On a voluntary basis, Fellows have the opportunity to present their work as part of the programming of cultural and educational organizations in the region. As part of Camargo's interest in engaging the local community, we encourage Fellows to consider participating in programs with students (for example, a classroom visit or hands-on workshop). Such events would be conceived and organized in close consultation with the Foundation's staff.

RESIDENCY REQUIREMENTS & OBLIGATIONS OF THE FELLOW

- Work developed during the residency may be in any language. In the interests of Camargo's interdisciplinary, multicultural community, candidates must be able to communicate well in English. A basic knowledge of French is useful but not required.
- The time in Cassis must be spent on the project or area of inquiry proposed to and accepted by the selection committee and approved by the Camargo Board of Trustees.

Fellows must be physically in residence at the Camargo Foundation during the entire residency period. This stipulation does not preclude absences during weekends. Frequent or prolonged absences are not allowed.

© SARA FARID

- Research should be at a stage that does not require resources unavailable in the Marseille-Cassis-Aix region or online. Applicants planning on conducting research in local archives may need to rent a car during their fellowship at their own expense.
- The Camargo staff will ask fellows to evaluate their residency at the end of their stay. The Foundation may also ask Fellows two to three years after their fellowship for an update on the progress on the project or area of inquiry pursued while at Camargo Foundation.
- A copy of any publication (digital or paper) resulting from work done during the residency should be sent to the Camargo Foundation. Any publication, exhibit, or performance resulting from the grant must credit the Camargo Foundation.

ADDITIONAL FUNDING

Fellows may not accept gainful employment that will prevent them from focusing on their project during their residencies at Camargo. Research leaves or other forms of sabbatical that provide income during the grant period are allowed, as are fees for occasional lectures or participation in seminars. Additional grants that do not contradict the conditions of the Camargo Fellowship are encouraged.

WORK SPACES & FACILITIES

The Camargo Foundation's campus includes twelve furnished apartments, a reference library, a music/conference room, an open-air theater, one artist's studio with a darkroom, and one composer's studio with a piano. The Camargo Foundation does not have a dance studio. The facilities are ideal for desk work. The Camargo Foundation does not provide art supplies or technical equipment. All apartments include a fully equipped kitchen for residents to prepare their own meals

NOTE FOR VISUAL ARTISTS

While Camargo can provide an artist studio, it is important to keep in mind that the Camargo Fellowship is a research-based residency, focused on research rather than production. The foundation does not cover shipping costs related to the transportation of artworks (to and from the foundation), or of any material work that might be produced during the residency.

VISAS

For non-European Union citizens, a visa may be required depending on nationality and length of stay. The processing of this visa may take a considerable amount of time. Fellows who are not from European Union countries should contact the French Embassy or Consulate in their area for information regarding visa requirements for France. The Camargo Foundation will provide an invitation letter if required.

ACCOMPANYING FAMILY MEMBERS

Spouses/adult partners and dependent minor children are welcome to accompany Fellows for short stays or for the duration of the residency. Accompanying children must be at least six years old upon arrival and enrolled in and attending school or organized activities outside the Camargo Foundation campus during the week. The Camargo Foundation staff will advise fellows on how to enroll their children in the local public schools. Only family members whose names appear on the application form may be in residence.

Animals other than officially registered service animals are not allowed. Fellows are responsible for securing all necessary documents and meeting all standards if bringing a service dog from outside of the country.

ABOUT THE SELECTION PROCESS

THE SELECTION PROCESS

The Camargo Foundation has two separate selection committees: one that reviews applications from Scholars & Thinkers and one that reviews applications from Artists. Each determines its own group of finalists. A cross-disciplinary committee representing both the Scholar/Thinker and Artist Committees then reviews all finalists and selects the fellowships recipients.

Committee choices are submitted to the Camargo Board of Trustees for approval. Candidates will be contacted in April 2023 with the outcome of their application. Applicants should not seek information about the status of their application. General information about the selection process will be available to all applicants.

Please note that during the selection process, notifications are sent through Submittable, our submission management platform, and may be marked as spam. Please check your spam folder if you do not receive news by the end of April 2023.

THE SELECTION COMMITTEES

Committee members, some of whom are former Fellows, include distinguished international scholars, writers, editors, artists, and curators. The Executive Director oversees their deliberations as a non-voting member. The composition of the Committees is published on the Foundation's website. Panel members are nominated for a maximum of three years. Every year, some panelists rotate off the Committee and new panelists are nominated.

SELECTION CRITERIA

During the review process, eligible applications are reviewed and evaluated in relationship to four criteria:

- the quality of the proposal;
- the quality and significance of the professional accomplishments of the applicant;
- the fit between the proposal and the Camargo Foundation's specificities and/or the connection to the Aix-Marseille-Provence area;
- the relevance of a residency at the stage of the applicant's career.

DIVERSITY

The Camargo Foundation is committed to supporting equality and diversity in age, gender, geographical origins, cultural background and ethnicity.
